Grace Happens Here

A Guide to Our Ministries

Dear People of Grace,

My prayers are often in images; I see Jesus in my mind's eye, or I try to see as he saw. When I pray this way about Grace Church, I see fields of golden wheat under an autumn sun tousled by the wind.

"The harvest is plentiful," Jesus told the disciples, "but the workers are few. Pray to the Lord of the Harvest that he may send workers for the harvest." (Luke 10:2)

Well, the Lord has sent you, and the fields are golden ripe. In this time of discernment and stewardship, I ask you to run your hands along the wheat tops and pray. "Where, Lord of the Harvest, do you want me to serve here?"

There are moments of decision in life that come to define us, and this is one.

Will you join us here at the harvest?

daniel +

THE PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY creates an outward expression of God's great care and love. We begin each shawl with a prayer; as we knit, our prayers are woven into the stitches of the shawl.

In addition to the prayers of the knitter, each shawl is blessed at one of our church services. Some of us knit and pray at home in our spare time; others gather each month for a light lunch and a time of knitting and sharing.

We not only knit prayer shawls, but also critter blankets, baby caps for the hospital, hats and scarves for the Seaman Ministry, lap blankets for the Pavilions, and cancer hats.

We welcome people who enjoy knitting, crocheting, weaving and sewing, of any age and any gender. Please join us!

For more information, call Maxcella Latimer at 947-6375.

Caring Ministries

THE GRACE CHURCH COLUMBARIUM AND MEMORIAL GARDEN

offers the opportunity for parishioners' ashes and those of their loved ones to repose inside the sanctuary in a "niche" in the wall of the Columbarium.

Ashes may also be interred in the Grace Memorial Garden for those who wish to bury the remains in the earth within the parish grounds.

The Columbarium Curator meets with those seeking burial to explain the options, show the sites (Columbarium and Garden) and answer questions that relate to rules and policies.

If you are interested in interment at Grace Church, have any questions, or wish to visit with our Curator, please contact the church office or the current Curator, Jeff Wescott, wescottjj@interlochen.org or 231-932-7357 (h), 231-276-4716 (w).

THE LIVING ON GRIEF GROUP provides grief support to all who have suffered a loss. Grief and loss topics are addressed as they arrive. The focus is to offer support, caring, and companionship.

What is offered...

- Time for silence and reflection
- Check-in with self and others on issues arising
- Present to self and each other and to God
- Place of compassion, education, and companionship

The group meets on the second Monday of each month from noon to 1 pm in the Sanctuary.

To learn more, contact Kathryn Holl, kholl@hom.org, 231-929-1557.

THE ADVENT QUIET MORNING is offered by the Centering Prayer Community and invites the Grace family and the wider community to prepare for a holy Advent on Saturday, December 5.

The community will gather in silence, followed by the reading of an Advent Gospel and a short meditation. Grace Harmony will lead Taize singing throughout the morning.

The quiet morning will be held on Saturday, December 5, from 10 am to 11:15 am in the Grace Church sanctuary.

For more information, contact Marilyn Dressel, mj.dressel@charter.net, 231-929-2575.

This is a day with several options...

- Holy Eucharist
- Centering prayer

STUDY

Learning

ADULT BIBLE STUDY enables disciples at Grace to gain familiarity and a level of comfort in reading the Bible so that it will inform their faith, worship, service, and relationship with God.

Each year the group chooses a reading plan as a way to read, explore, and discuss the Bible during the year. Newcomers are welcome to join the group at any time.

Classes meet on Sundays between the services in the Parish Hall. Other adult education classes regularly meet on Wednesday evenings. Watch Grace Life or the website to see additional opportunities.

For more information, contact Dave Eitland, deitland@gmail.com, 231-360-1774.

THE DREAM GROUP is grounded in Christian principles and Jungian psychology. Dream work is a valid and powerful tool that helps to deepen our spiritual life. It brings to our conscious mind not only our shadow aspects, but also unrecognized good aspects that are buried in our unconscious.

Some aspects of our work...

- Share dreams in a safe environment
- Honor confidentiality
- Receive divine guidance from dreams
- Gain insight into our unconscious

We meet every other Tuesday in LL3, 4-6 pm, January-May and September-November.

For more information, contact Sue Brightheart, suebrightheart@gmail.com, 231-943-2625.

THE GRACE CHURCH LIBRARY is located in the Parish Hall building, lower level, room LL2. We have a very readable collection of books in our library.

You can read for spiritual enlightenment, to gain knowledge about any number of topics, or even read a fiction book for fun.

Checkout is easy. Just write your name and date on the card at the back of the book and leave it in the box on the cart. You can keep the book as long as you need to, but please return it so others can enjoy it also.

New acquisitions can be found on the cart in the stairwell or on the cart in the library.

Volunteers are welcome and don't need any special skills. A brief training will have you ready for duty.

For more details, contact Penny Campo-Pierce, pcampopierce@charter.net, 231-946-1224.
